

Ecampus Guide to Getting Started Checklist

Your ONID account (OSU Network Identification)

This account is required for you to access Blackboard, and provides you with your university email address. Go to http://ecampus.oregonstate.edu/services/start/onid_sign_up.htm to sign up. Your ONID email is your official OSU email, billing notification and all other OSU communications will be sent there. Be sure to check it regularly.

Order your textbooks and course materials,

<http://ecampus.oregonstate.edu/soc/ecatalog/esubjects.htm?termcode=201003>

- Click on the subject
- Click on the OSU Bookstore link for the course that you're registered for

Login to Blackboard

You can login to Blackboard, <http://my.oregonstate.edu>, using your ONID username and password. Your courses will show up in Blackboard when the instructor has finished preparing the course site and should be available the first day of the term.

Familiarize yourself with the Enrollment & Services section of the Ecampus Website <http://ecampus.oregonstate.edu/services/>

The Enrollment & Services section of our website has been designed for you to have a consolidated area to locate all services, processes, and resources that you may need to successfully complete your degree program or course:
