

100 YEARS

of

COUNSELOR EDUCATION

1917 Professor Frank Shepherd teaches the first counseling education course at Oregon Agricultural College (OAC), the precursor to Oregon State University.

1920s The counseling program expands from a vocational focus to include emotional and psychological health.

1929 The first counseling master's student graduates.

1932 OAC is designated as the state institution responsible for training counselors.

1935 Counseling faculty establish the Counseling Center on campus, now known as Counseling and Psychological Services.

1937 The state authorizes the addition of a counseling doctorate program.

Oregon State University

College of Education

