

“Research in Action” Podcast Podcast 101

What is a podcast?

Podcasts have been frequently compared to radio shows. They are audio (and sometimes video) episodes on a range of issues including popular culture, news, education, and many other subjects. Most episodes are between 30-60 minutes, although some are longer or shorter. Many podcasts allow users to “subscribe” to receive automatic updates of episodes. Many podcasts are also available to listen to via a podcast “app” on a mobile device or via a website media player.

How to listen to the “Research in Action” podcast

You and your students can access the “Research in Action” podcast in several ways:

1. Download the podcast to an “app” on a mobile device including:

- a. the Podcasts app for iOS
- b. the Stitcher app (iOS & Android)
- c. the Soundcloud app (iOS & Android)

2. Listen to the podcast on the web at:

- a. The Research in Action website
- b. Stitcher: <https://www.stitcher.com/podcast/research-in-action>
- c. Soundcloud: <https://soundcloud.com/researchinaction>

3. Listen to the podcast via iTunes

<https://itunes.apple.com/us/podcast/research-in-action-podcast-for-faculty-higher-education/id1101916802?mt=2>

4. Embed a “player” directly into your course website using the “share” feature available through Soundcloud: <https://soundcloud.com/researchinaction>

Please feel free to share any of these links or instructions with students to help them find, download, and listen to the “Research in Action” podcast episode that you want to assign.

Happy listening!